Introducing info4africa ... a new identity for HIVAN

The Centre for HIV/AIDS Networking (HIVAN) has a long history of working in the field of HIV, AIDS and TB:

- we have built a country-wide database of over 12 000 support service providers
- annually we disseminate upwards of 20 000 directories capacitating service providers in all sectors, and
- we engage in a variety of face-to-face networking activities including forums, workshops and training

Over the past decade there have been a lot of very positive changes in the health landscape of South Africa. People now live and work with HIV and for many HIV has become a chronic disease. Likewise, living with immune deficiencies has created new vulnerabilities for people to non-communicable and communicable diseases; a need for socio-economic support; human rights and legal support and increased pressure for training, education and development programmes.

HIVAN's focus has expanded and matured with these changes such that our database, wider networking and capacity building activities now more broadly reflect service provision in health, wellbeing and development in South Africa.

With this broadening of focus we felt it was time to change our name to one that more fully conveys the scope of our products, activities and expertise.

Through a consultative process with our partner organisations and our staff we are now very pleased and proud to announce our new name and tag line.

This new brand speaks to our history and gives us a broader stage on which to engage with all stakeholders in the years to come. We hope you will agree with us.

info4africa is a self-funded Centre of the School of Applied Human Sciences, College of Humanities, University of KwaZulu-Natal.

"This directory of HIV-related services in KwaZulu-Natal is partially made possible by the generous support of the American people through the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) and the President's Emergency Plan. The contents are the responsibility of the Centre for HIV and AIDS Networking (through a Sub-Agreement with Foundation for Professional Development) and do not necessarily reflect the views of USAID or the United States Government".

How to use this Directory of Support Services Providers:

- This publication forms part of our Sixth Series of Support Services Directories.
- It contains contact details of 2,490 organisations working in health, wellbeing and development support in KwaZulu-Natal province.
- The directory is used to capacitate support services providers in connecting with and referring clients between organisations working in all areas of this province.
- To make it easy to find support services in your area, we have categorised the organisations by location. Organisation information is listed alphabetically within their municipalities.
- An alphabetical index of all organisations within this province is provided at the back of the directory, along with the details of their respective municipalities.
- Maps are provided at the start of each metropolitan / district municipality section.
- A summary description and contact information is listed for each organisation. Icons have been provided for primary services to help you identify organisations that provide the services you require.
- At the front and back of the directory is a full listing of the primary and secondary service categorisation that we have used for all organisations.
- If you need to edit any listing in this directory or alert us to new organisations please complete the update form at the back of the directory or contact us on: 0860 448 911 or email us on community@info4africa.org.za
- Our database is also searchable on the web or via mobile phone – see the inside front cover of this directory for full contact information.
- Directories can be ordered at R200 per province or R500 for a CD-Rom of all 9 provinces.

Thank you to our Project Partner, Foundation for Professional Development (FPD):

- The info4africa national directory project is funded by the FPD through PEPFAR/USAID. The FPD is currently the largest self-funding health sector educational provider in South Africa.
- The FPD has 3 key focus areas: education, research and capacity building - more specifically in the areas of health and management.
- Info4africa reports to the Compass Project within the FPD. This FPD initiative strives to assist communities to respond effectively to HIV:
  - Their HIV and AIDS Mapping and Research Centre working to achieve accurate epidemiological data and gap analysis for communities.
  - They also provide information and resource collaboration for locating HIV and AIDS services/organisations; and
  - They facilitate organisational development and capacity building through organisational needs assessments, benchmarking and skills building for community organisations.

Established as a one-stop, integrated community development centre with community participation and services relevant to people's needs, we empower the poor and disadvantaged through access to information, services and resources. Our Centres integrate government services into primarily rural communities which historically have poor service access due to their remote location and economic circumstances. The Centres provide a hub of activities and a variety of services which are organised according to a six-block service model including: Government social and administrative services, office services, education and skills development services, local economic development services, business services and community opportunities, information and communication activities. Since community needs are the driving factor in service provision, this model is modified to suit the context and environment of each Thusong Service Centre. At this branch we house satellite offices for the Departments of Home Affairs, Labour, Social Development and Justice. We also have offices for the Small Enterprise Development Agency (SEDA), the South African Post Office and Khulisa Crime Prevention. We are open from 07:30 to 16:25, Monday to Friday.

We are a community-based (CBO), government/public organisation. Established as a one-stop, integrated community development centre with community participation and services relevant to people's needs, we empower the poor and disadvantaged through access to information, services and resources. The Centres provide a hub of activities and a variety of services which are organised according to a six-block service model including: Government social and administrative services, office services, education and skills development services, local economic development services, business services and community opportunities, information and communication activities. Since community needs are the driving factor in service provision, this model is modified to suit the context and environment of each Thusong Service Centre. We are a community-based (CBO), government/public organisation. We are a unit of the Sexual Offences and Community Affairs Unit (SOCA) of the National Prosecuting Authority of South Africa. One of the SOCA's key achievements in ensuring government's commitment to the fight against sexual offences and gender-based violence is the establishment of Thuthuzela Care Centres (TCCs). The TCC concept is recognised by the UN General Assembly as a world best-practice model in the field of gender-violence management and response. The TCCs are one-stop facilities located in public hospitals in communities where the incidence of rape is particularly high. The TCCs provide survivors with a broad range of essential services from emergency medical care and counselling to court preparation in a holistic, integrated and victim-friendly manner. The department aims to establish 35 centres by 2025. We are situated at RK Khan Hospital. We are open 24 Hours a day, 7 days a week.

Thuthuzela Care Centre - Stanger Hospital

We are a community-based (CBO), government/public organisation. We are a unit of the Sexual Offences and Community Affairs Unit (SOCA) of the National Prosecuting Authority of South Africa. One of the SOCA's key achievements in ensuring government's commitment to the fight against sexual offences and gender-based violence is the establishment of Thuthuzela Care Centres (TCCs). The TCC concept is recognised by the UN General Assembly as a world best-practice model in the field of gender-violence management and response. The TCCs are one-stop facilities located in public hospitals in communities where the incidence of rape is particularly high. The TCCs provide survivors with a broad range of essential services from emergency medical-care and counselling to court preparation in a holistic, integrated and victim-friendly manner. The department aims to establish 35 centres by 2025. We are situated at Stanger Hospital.

We are a community-based (CBO), government/public organisation. Established as a one-stop, integrated community development centre with community participation and services relevant to people's needs, we empower the poor and disadvantaged through access to information, services and resources. The Centres provide a hub of activities and a variety of services which are organised according to a six-block service model including: Government social and administrative services, office services, education and skills development services, local economic development services, business services and community opportunities, information and communication activities. Since community needs are the driving factor in service provision, this model is modified to suit the context and environment of each Thusong Service Centre. Our Telecentre also offers administrative support to small businesses and runs computer literacy training programmes. We are open from 07:30 to 16:00, Monday to Friday.

TB/HIV Care Association - Sisonke

As a result we have health facility-based counsellors and mobile units that can move around the community. We provide treatment adherence support, clinical mentorship and training. We have a workplace co-ordinator dedicated to providing free TB and HIV-related services to large and small workplaces. We also work closely with the Department of Correctional Services and their facilities around South Africa, to test for HIV, TB and STIs in prisons. We work to improve TB management by increasing access to TB and HIV diagnosis, care, treatment and community-based adherence support. We have focused specifically on the challenges associated with undiagnosed and untreated TB, HIV and STIs. By addressing these challenges we aim to decrease morbidity and mortality, decrease transmission and improve clinical responses. We engage in national awareness programmes and provide care and support for children and adults infected and affected with TB, HIV and AIDS. We participate in research, develop monitoring and evaluation systems and build the capacity of individuals and organisations to provide optimal TB and HIV prevention and care. At this branch we also help patients to apply for their social grants and provide training in TB and HIV for peer educators and shop stewards in work places.

Thusong Service Centre - Malangeni

We are a community-based (CBO), government/public organisation. Established as a one-stop, integrated community development centre with community participation and services relevant to people's needs, we empower the poor and disadvantaged through access to information, services and resources. Our Centres integrate government services into primarily rural communities which historically have poor service access due to their remote location and economic circumstances. The Centres provide a hub of activities and a variety of services which are organised according to a six-block service model including: Government social and administrative services, office services, education and skills development services, local economic development services, business services and community opportunities, information and communication activities. Since community needs are the driving factor in service provision, this model is modified to suit the context and environment of each Thusong Service Centre. At our branch we have a satellite office of the South African Police Services, a Postal Agency, a community library and two work counsellors. We are open from 07:30 to 16:00, Monday to Friday.

We work to help the staggering number of children orphaned by HIV and AIDS to mature into emotionally and psychologically stable adults capable of forming lasting and loving relationships. Children learn how to become nurturing parents to their own children and responsible and participative citizens of South Africa. We operate a number of community-based facilities caring for younger children so that older children can attend school, do their homework and receive the care they need to support their younger siblings.

Thanda After-School Programmes

We are a community-based (CBO), non-profit organisation (NPO). We run a project in rural KwaZulu-Natal that provides daily support for orphans as well as other vulnerable children. Our focus areas include poverty alleviation, household vegetable gardens, entrepreneurship, health and nutrition information, child care and parenting support, HIV prevention and treatment referral, life skills education and assistance with accessing social grants. We use already existing local resources from classrooms to soccer fields to engage 325 children, youth and young adults from 5 to 22 years of age in after-school activities. We employ young role models from within the community to be mentors for these students, filling the developmental and emotional gaps left by missing parents and overwhelmed caregivers. By enrolling in year-long programmes such as agriculture, construction and computers, our children develop valuable skills and learn self-reliance. Students learn about teamwork and gain confidence by playing basketball, soccer and netball as their teachers promote healthy lifestyles and discuss HIV prevention. Our art and dancing programmes encourage creativity and give the children much-needed outlets for healing. Every child in our care receives a meal after school as well as homework support and engaging educational lessons which supplement their traditional schooling and nurture curiosity for knowledge. We also support older youth to undertake distance education at tertiary level. Our after-school is a place where children stop seeing themselves as victims and start seeing their opportunities for the future. We are open from 08:00 to 17:00, Monday to Friday.

Thusong Service Centre - Impendle

We are a community-based (CBO), government/public organisation. Established as a one-stop, integrated community development centre with community participation and services relevant to people's needs, we empower the poor and disadvantaged through access to information, services and resources. Our Centres integrate government services into primarily rural communities which historically have poor service access due to their remote location and economic circumstances. The Centres provide a hub of activities and a variety of services which are organised according to a six-block service model including: Government social and administrative services, office services, education and skills development services, local economic development services, business services and community opportunities, information and communication activities. Since community needs are the driving factor in service provision, this model is modified to suit the context and environment of each Thusong Service Centre. At our branch we have satellite offices for a range of government departments, including Education, Agriculture and Home Affairs. We also have a Community Communication Centre which provides computer literacy training programmes.

Project Gateway

We are a faith-based (FBO), non-profit organisation (NPO). We work through the community to reach out and meet people in crisis and help them to become self-sufficient through our empowerment, care and education programmes. Our empowerment programmes specialise in fashion and business development targeting local people who have previously earned little or no income but who show clear entrepreneurial potential. Long term training incorporates business start-up skills, marketing support, mentorship and where needed, basic job skills. A number of our projects provide training in areas such as basic English, sewing, knitting, baking, basic health care, parenting and child care. Through Ethembeni, our medical and health department, we provide education, care and support in the area of HIV, AIDS and TB. Our "Pregnancy Care" programme protects, guides and nurtures young women in pregnancy related crises. Our home for vulnerable women cares for and restores women to being fully functioning members of society and our overnight shelter provides a safe haven, accommodation and meals for the homeless on a daily basis. Gateway Christian School is a primary school which provides good quality education at affordable fees for many of the less privileged children in the area from 5 to 13 years of age who would not normally have access to such a level of education. Our boarding home accommodates 10 learners at a home close to the school. These learners are mainly orphans as well as other vulnerable children who need some time away from their home environment, although some are with us due to other special circumstances. Children are given homework support and they take part in extra-mural activities. We are open 24 Hours, 7 days a week. Our office hours are from 08:00 to 16:30, Monday to Friday.

Thusong Service Centre - Mbazwana

We are a community-based (CBO), government/public organisation. Established as a one-stop, integrated community development centre with community participation and services relevant to people's needs, we empower the poor and disadvantaged through access to information, services and resources. Our Centres integrate government services into primarily rural communities which historically have poor service access due to their remote location and economic circumstances. The Centres provide a hub of activities and a variety of services which are organised according to a six-block service model including: Government social and administrative services, office services, education and skills development services, local economic development services, business services and community opportunities, information and communication activities. Since community needs are the driving factor in service provision, this model is modified to suit the context and environment of each Thusong Service Centre. At our branch we house satellite offices for various government departments, including the departments of Home Affairs, Labour, Social Development and SASSA. We are open from 08:00 to 16:00, Monday to Friday.

We are a non-profit organisation (NPO). We promote optimal standards of care for orphaned, vulnerable and at-risk children and youth. We are a professional association which comprises a membership body as well as a professional services section. All our activities focus on improving the quality of services for children and youth. We do this through developing the abilities of those who work directly with them. Child and youth care workers work with children wherever they may be, in residential care facilities, families and communities. We use ordinary daily events to intervene developmentally and therapeutically with children and youth and constitute a new social service profession. Our branch is a site office of the NACCW in Msinga. Our site office forms part of the Isibindi project where child and youth care workers visit identified orphans and vulnerable children in their homes and provide comprehensive services. This includes accompanying and representing children at schools, health services and government offices when necessary. They also provide psychological support through memory box activities, grief work, building of relationships, identifying needs and feelings, providing developmental care, behaviour management, activity programming, risk assessment and life space counselling.

Thusong Service Centre - Tugela Ferry

We are a community-based (CBO), government/public organisation. Established as a one-stop, integrated community development centre with community participation and services relevant to people's needs, we empower the poor and disadvantaged through access to information, services and resources. Our Centres integrate government services into primarily rural communities which historically have poor service access due to their remote location and economic circumstances. The Centres provide a hub of activities and a variety of services which are organised according to a six-block service model including: Government social and administrative services, office services, education and skills development services, local economic development services, business services and community opportunities, information and communication activities. Since community needs are the driving factor in service provision, this model is modified to suit the context and environment of each Thusong Service Centre. At our branch we operate a Telecentre which provides community members with telecommunication and administrative services such as faxing, typing and photocopying. We also house satellite office for the Departments of Home Affairs, Labour, Traditional Affairs and Housing.

Thusong Service Centre - Driefontein

We are a community-based (CBO), government/public organisation. Established as a one-stop, integrated community development centre with community participation and services relevant to people's needs, we empower the poor and disadvantaged through access to information, services and resources. Our Centres integrate government services into primarily rural communities which historically have poor service access due to their remote location and economic circumstances. The Centres provide a hub of activities and a variety of services which are organised according to a six-block service model including: Government social and administrative services, office services, education and skills development services, local economic development services, business services and community opportunities, information and communication activities. Since community needs are the driving factor in service provision, this model is modified to suit the context and environment of each Thusong Service Centre. At our branch we have satellite offices for the government departments of Traditional Affairs, Cooperative Governance, Home Affairs and Social Development. We also have a media centre which provides librarian services and a Post Office. We are open from 08:00 to 16:00, Monday to Friday.

Thusong Service Centre - Dukuza

We are a community-based (CBO), government/public organisation. Established as a one-stop, integrated community development centre with community participation and services relevant to people's needs, we empower the poor and disadvantaged through access to information, services and resources. Our Centres integrate government services into primarily rural communities which historically have poor service access due to their remote location and economic circumstances. The Centres provide a hub of activities and a variety of services which are organised according to a six-block service model including: Government social and administrative services, office services, education and skills development services, local economic development services, business services and community opportunities, information and communication activities. Since community needs are the driving factor in service provision, this model is modified to suit the context and environment of each Thusong Service Centre. At our branch we have a Post Office and satellite offices for the Departments of Health, Home Affairs, Labour and Local Government.

We are a community-based (CBO), government/public organisation. We are a unit of the Sexual Offences and Community Affairs Unit (SOCA) of the National Prosecuting Authority of South Africa. The TCC concept is recognised by the UN General Assembly as a world best-practice model in the field of gender-violence management and response. The TCCs are one-stop facilities located in public hospitals in communities where the incidence of rape is particularly high. The TCCs provide survivors with a broad range of essential services from emergency medical-care and counselling to court preparation in a holistic, integrated and victim-friendly manner. The department aims to establish 35 centres by 2025. We are situated at Ngwelezane Hospital. We are open 24 Hours a day, 7 days a week.

Building a better society through education and development

Teaching and Learning

FPD is a Private Institute for Higher Education (registration number 20002/HE071013) registered with the South African Department of Education in terms of section 54(1)(c) of the Act and Regulation 16(4)(a) and is an accredited service provider for continuous professional development (CPD) by the Medical and Dental Professions Board of the Health Professions Council of South Africa (HPCSA).

- To date we have trained over 200 000 students in a 135 courses over 16 countries.

Capacity Development

FPD has a strong capacity development focus which stems from our vision to build a better society. This focus includes projects which are designed to promote Private-Public-Initiatives with a view of improving health service delivery and academic capacity within the public sector. We have:

- over 235 000 patients currently on antiretroviral treatment.
- placed over 2 550 foreign professionals in rural government hospitals in South Africa since 2005.
- placed 188 masters level students and graduates in targeted scarce skills shortage areas in the public sector AIDS service domains since 2006.
- provided the NGO community with both a voice and the ability to implement key findings to enhance service delivery.
- provided the public with immediate access to the locations of their nearest HCT Testing Facility through GIS mapping and geo-coding.

- organised and/or hosted over 25 conferences, congresses and forums since 2000 including the XIII international AIDS Conference, a 13 000 delegate event that changed the global perception on the availability of drugs in Africa and to date it is still one of the largest conferences held in Africa.

Research

FPD participates in research projects with as much passion and commitment as our day to day activities. This is because we believe that attempts to improve society begin with research and educational development. Annually, FPD staff participate in a number of research projects which have resulted in community-focused publications presented in journals, books and many international conferences. Since 2003, FPD have produced 150 oral presentations, 135 poster presentations and 88 publications.

Strategic Partnership

FPD has over the years developed a number of strategic partnerships with world-class academic and health development institutions. These partnerships range from international partnerships (18) to national partnerships (50) including partnerships with several South African Provincial Government Departments.
