Introducing info4africa ... a new identity for HIVAN

The Centre for HIV/AIDS Networking (HIVAN) has a long history of working in the field of HIV, AIDS and TB:

- we have built a country-wide database of over 12 000 support service providers
- annually we disseminate upwards of 20 000 directories capacitating service providers in all sectors, and
- we engage in a variety of face-to-face networking activities including forums, workshops and training

Over the past decade there have been a lot of very positive changes in the health landscape of South Africa. People now live and work with HIV and for many HIV has become a chronic disease. Likewise, living with immune deficiencies has created new vulnerabilities for people to non-communicable and communicable diseases; a need for socio-economic support; human rights and legal support and increased pressure for training, education and development programmes.

HIVAN's focus has expanded and matured with these changes such that our database, wider networking and capacity building activities now more broadly reflect service provision in health, wellbeing and development in South Africa.

With this broadening of focus we felt it was time to change our name to one that more fully conveys the scope of our products, activities and expertise.

Through a consultative process with our partner organisations and our staff we are now very pleased and proud to announce our new name and tag line.

COLLECTING DATA • CONNECTING COMMUNITIES

This new brand speaks to our history and gives us a broader stage on which to engage with all stakeholders in the years to come. We hope you will agree with us.

info4africa is a self-funded Centre of the School of Applied Human Sciences, College of Humanities, University of KwaZulu-Natal.

"This directory of HIV-related services in Western Cape is partially made possible by the generous support of the American people through the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) and the President's Emergency Plan. The contents are the responsibility of the Centre for HIV and AIDS Networking (through a Sub-Agreement with Foundation for Professional Development) and do not necessarily reflect the views of USAID or the United States Government".

How to use this Directory of Support Services Providers:

- This publication forms part of our Sixth Series of Support Services Directories.
- It contains contact details of 1 354 organisations working in health, wellbeing and development support in Western Cape province.
- The directory is used to capacitate support services providers in connecting with and referring clients between organisations working in all areas of this province.
- To make it easy to find support services in your area, we have categorised the organisations by location. Organisation information is listed alphabetically within their municipalities.
- An alphabetical index of all organisations within this province is provided at the back of the directory, along with the details of their respective municipalities.
- Maps are provided at the start of each metropolitan / district municipality section.
- A summary description and contact information is listed for each organisation. Icons have been provided for primary services to help you identify organisations that provide the services you require.
- At the front and back of the directory is a full listing of the primary and secondary service categorisation that we have used for all organisations.
- If you need to edit any listing in this directory or alert us to new organisations please complete the update form at the back of the directory or contact us on: 0860 448 911 or email us on community@info4africa.org.za
- Our database is also searchable on the web or via mobile phone – see the inside front cover of this directory for full contact information.
- Directories can be ordered at R200 per province or R500 for a CD-Rom of all 9 provinces.

Thank you to our Project Partner, Foundation for Professional Development (FPD):

- The info4africa national directory project is funded by the FPD through PEPFAR/USAID. The FPD is currently the largest self-funding health sector educational provider in South Africa.
- The FPD has 3 key focus areas: education, research and capacity building - more specifically in the areas of health and management.
- Info4africa reports to the Compass Project within the FPD. This FPD initiative strives to assist communities to respond effectively to HIV:
 - Their HIV and AIDS Mapping and Research Centre working to achieve accurate epidemiological data and gap analysis for communities.
 - They also provide information and resource collaboration for locating HIV and AIDS services/organisations; and
 - They facilitate organisational development and capacity building through organisational needs assessments, benchmarking and skills building for community organisations.

The Centres provide a hub of activities and a variety of services which are organised according to a six-block service model including: Government social and administrative services, office services, education and skills development services, local economic development services, business services and community opportunities, information and communication activities. Since community needs are the driving factor in service provision, this model is modified to suit the context and environment of each Thusong Service Centre. Activate!

We are a non-government organisation (NGO). We are a network of young leaders in South Africa who aim to build a critical mass of think-out-the-box trendsetters who have the skills, sense of self and spark to reshape South African society and meet its toughest challenges. Working on a national scale across urban and rural areas, we identify people in their twenties who are dedicated to transforming their communities and are motivated to take their work to the next level. These 'activators', whether employed, unemployed or studying, participate in a cutting edge programme that spans three years on a part time basis. The three key objectives of the programme are: build a strong sense of identity among the young leaders, focused on the common goal of public innovation; build a mind-set of innovation, placing problems in context and using ideas to solve them; create opportunity for personal growth and development for participants, which can serve as a precedent for other young people. Ultimately, we aim to see increased efficacy in service delivery through instilling innovation at critical points, increased accountability for service delivery through activating young people's voices and the expansion of opportunity for young people to be powerful agents of change across South Africa and beyond.

Quaker Peace Centre

We are a non-profit organisation (NPO). We work towards building a safe, peaceful society by addressing the issues that contribute to a high level of insecurity and personal and institutional violence. We are based in Cape Town and operate mostly in schools in socio-economically challenged townships of the Cape Flats. We work towards building an institutional culture of peace by training teachers and assisting them to set up peace clubs at their schools. The non-violent schools campaign works to reduce the levels of violence in schools so that constructive teaching and learning can take place and to engage learners to contribute towards the reduction of violence in the school grounds. We run workshops on Alternatives to Violence Projects (AVP) at schools and in the community to equip teachers, students and participants in the community to deal with conflict non-violently. Our diversity programme allows learners and teachers to commit to the work of overcoming xenophobia, racial and gender prejudice. We also run a young women in leadership programme to build and support good relationships between young women, parents and caregivers. The programme develops sustainable leadership structures that can act as a platform for young women to discuss issues that are affecting their lives. We are open from 08:30 to 16:30, Monday to Friday.

Thusong Simunye Service Centre

We are a community-based (CBO), government/public organisation. Established as a one-stop, integrated community development centre with community participation and services relevant to people's needs, we empower the poor and disadvantaged through access to information, services and resources. Our Centres integrate government services into primarily rural communities which historically have poor service access due to their remote location and economic circumstances. The Centres provide a hub of activities and a variety of services which are organised according to a six-block service model including: Government social and administrative services, office services, education and skills development services, local economic development services, business services and community opportunities, information and communication activities. Since community needs are the driving factor in service provision, this model is modified to suit the context and environment of each Thusong Service Centre. At our branch we host a number of government departments and community organisations.

Sinethemba Youth Development Centre

We are a community-based (CBO), non-profit organisation (NPO). We focus on the rehabilitation of children and youth at risk through life skills and trade skills training. Our drop-in centre runs educational programmes and provides basic services focused on meeting emotional, physical and social development needs of vulnerable children. Specific attention is paid to children who live on the street. Begging children on the streets of Knysna are taken to our fully equipped Centre which provides suitable facilities for hygiene, feeding, administration and teaching such as adult basic education training. Social workers go into the parental backgrounds and reasons for the children being on the streets. They give daily instruction and counselling in preparation for their return to schools, family or foster care. We rehabilitate the youth in self-sufficiency through training so they can earn a living, negating the temptation to revert to begging, theft or drug trafficking. 2 daily meals are provided for the children, plus a weekly activity programme including literacy, numeracy, sewing, pottery, card making, cookery, gardening, drumming, sport, life-skills as well as recreational outings. We also run a creche where under-school age children are prepared for school. We are open from 08:00 to 18:00, Monday to Friday.

Rainbow Trust

We are a community-based (CBO), non-government organisation (NGO). We provide essential health, social and education services in response to the dire needs of poor and marginalised communities within the Hermanus region. Our trained home-based care-givers attend to the palliative and health care needs of individuals who have been discharged from local clinics but still require on-going care within their homes. In addition to caring for clients who have been discharged from local clinics, home carers also conduct household surveys that detect any medical or social issues that may need to be addressed. We are an official partner to the Western Cape Department of Health for the provision of HIV and AIDS counsellors and ARV adherence counsellors at local clinics in the Overstrand Municipality. The Trust has lay HIV and AIDS counsellors and ARV adherence counsellors stationed at clinics throughout the Overstrand region. Our counsellors conduct pre- and post-test counselling to individuals who have voluntary HIV tests at clinics. Our ECD Health programme works to address the often poor conditions within crèches in impoverished areas. A dedicated ECD health coordinator visits registered and non-registered crèches to evaluate creche environments and to make recommendations to crèche operators about how they can improve their facilities. Our Children's Circle of Support programme addresses the issues of child-headed households, child neglect, poverty-related barriers to education and the lack of after-school stimulation for impoverished children. We run pre-school, which includes a Grade R facility. We are also involved in stringent monitoring and evaluation programmes. We run a soup kitchen every day for the needy and we provide the orphans and vulnerable children with daily breakfast and lunch. We are open from 07:00 to 16:30, Monday to Friday.

Thusong Hawston Service Centre

We are a community-based (CBO), government/public organisation. Established as a one-stop, integrated community development centre with community participation and services relevant to people's needs, we empower the poor and disadvantaged through access to information, services and resources. Our Centres integrate government services into primarily rural communities which historically have poor service access due to their remote location and economic circumstances. The Centres provide a hub of activities and a variety of services which are organised according to a six-block service model including: Government social and administrative services, office services, education and skills development services, local economic development services, business services and community opportunities, information and communication activities. Since community needs are the driving factor in service provision, this model is modified to suit the context and environment of each Thusong Service Centre. At our branch we host a number of government departments and community organisations.

National Association of Child Care Workers - Middelpos

(NACCW - Middelpos)

We are a non-profit organisation (NPO). We promote optimal standards of care for orphaned, vulnerable and at-risk children and youth. We are a professional association which comprises a membership body as well as a professional services section. All our activities focus on improving the quality of services for children and youth. We do this through developing the abilities of those who work directly with them. Child and youth care workers work with children wherever they may be, in residential care facilities, families and communities. We use ordinary daily events to intervene developmentally and therapeutically with children and youth. This practice constitutes a new social service profession. Our branch of NACCW is an Isibindi site. Within the Isibindi model, child and youth care workers visit identified orphans and vulnerable children in their homes and provide comprehensive services. This includes accompanying and representing children at schools, health services and government offices, when necessary. Our team also provide psychological support through memory box activities, grief work, building of relationships, identifying needs and feelings, providing developmental care, behaviour management, activity programming, risk assessment and life space counselling. We are open from 08:30 to 16:30, Monday to Friday.

FPD is committed to developing the capacity of healthcare professionals and managers in Africa thereby ensuring they are better equipped to meet the challenges facing healthcare in the region

Building a better society through education and development

Teaching and Learning

FPD is a Private Institute for Higher Education (registration number 20002/HE071013) registered with the South African Department of Education in terms of section 54(1)(c) of the Act and Regulation 16(4)(a) and is an accredited service provider for continuous professional development (CPD) by the Medical and Dental Professions Board of the Health Professions Council of South Africa (HPCSA).

- To date we have trained over 200 000 students in a 135 courses over 16 countries.

Capacity Development

FPD has a strong capacity development focus which stems from our vision to build a better society. This focus includes projects which are designed to promote Private-Public-Initiatives with a view of improving health service delivery and academic capacity within the public sector. We have:

- over 235 000 patients currently on antiretroviral treatment.
- placed over 2 550 foreign professionals in rural government hospitals in South Africa since 2005.
- placed 188 masters level students and graduates in targeted scarce skills shortage areas in the public sector AIDS service domains since 2006.
- provided the NGO community with both a voice and the ability to implement key findings to enhance service delivery.
- provided the public with immediate access to the locations of their nearest HCT Testing Facility through GIS mapping and geo-coding.

- organised and/or hosted over 25 conferences, congresses and forums since 2000 including the XIII international AIDS Conference, a 13 000 delegate event that changed the global perception on the availability of drugs in Africa and to date it is still one of the largest conferences held in Africa.

Research

FPD participates in research projects with as much passion and commitment as our day to day activities. This is because we believe that attempts to improve society begin with research and educational development. Annually, FPD staff participate in a number of research projects which have resulted in community-focused publications presented in journals, books and many international conferences. Since 2003, FPD have produced 150 oral presentations, 135 poster presentations and 88 publications.

Strategic Partnership

FPD has over the years developed a number of strategic partnerships with world-class academic and health development institutions. These partnerships range from international partnerships (18) to national partnerships (50) including partnerships with several South African Provincial Government Departments.
