Ms. Germa Hattingh

Germa Hattingh, is the manager of Imisebeyelanga Services - a Non-Profit Organisation (NPO) that focuses on three programmes:

- Training - Home Based Care, Early Childhood Development, HIV Peer Education, Breaking the Cycle of Child Abuse, Community Health Work, Child and Youth Care and Leadership / Management training;
- Organizational Development Programme - currently developing 28 emerging NPO's and
- Poverty Alleviation - currently providing material support for approximately 250 orphans and vulnerable children.

Germa completed her course in the Certificate for Advanced Health Management (CAHM) with an average of 77.3%.

She had the following to say about this course: "My scholarship at FPD had a major impact on my career. It broadened my horizons and brought my focus back to the finer details of successful management. I can say: "It allowed me the opportunity to sharpen my axe." Through my studies and practical assignments, we managed to access different funding opportunities."

And about FPD she said the following: "FPD is the benchmark for what I have in mind for our training institute. The warm professionalism was what attracted me most to FPD. Training institutions can be very unapproachable but I have only experienced dedicated and professional service. You become part of a "family". It is my next dream to access the DAHM programme with FPD."

"It allowed me the opportunity to sharpen my axe."
