MEGAN POWER

MORE than 6 000 new research papers and scientific discoveries, including how to reduce HIV infect babies, will be debated at the year's International conference in Durban.

The Jul

to attract more than 12 000 participants from around the world and boost the local economy by R100-million, "be used by scientists a workers to findings ent fail fight new discoveries in the treatment of the disease. If you asked me my opinion yesterday on the best treatment, I would have given a certain answer. But today, because I've just received a new study from Uganda, I would have had to change my mind," said scientific programme chairman Professor Salim Abdool Karim at the Aids 2000 launch this week.

Prime focus, he said, would be on the development of effective HIV vaccines and the availability of cost-effective therapy developing countries.

It is also hoped the conference will lead to international scientific collaboration.

Aids 2000 conference launched in Durban

International Aids conference 2000 launched in Durban yesterday, introducing the theme "Break the silence". The conference will be held at the International Convention Centre from July 9 to 14. The conference would be attended by national delegates, and information on the conference was made in a press conference.

XIII INTERNATIONAL AIDS CONFERENCE

DURBAN • SOUTH AFRICA • 9-14 JULY 2000

THE Southern Sun group has backed out of its original intention to charge foreign delegates attending next year's Aids conference at Durban's International Convention Centre up to 300% more than the existing tariff.

Aids: no more time to kill

'ALL VIEWS MUST BE CONSIDERED AND DEBATED'

A Western approach to Aids in Africa will not work, says the president. Susanna Loof, our Parliamentary Bureau and Ishani

Denounced

Zuma, who heads the Government's anti-Aids drive, said broadening the debate had not stopped the Government from addressing the disease in accordance with mainstream scientific practice.

It is reported from Washington that some scientists have denounced South Africa's Aids policy as "misguided", saying thousands were dying while politicians argued about the best and cures of the disease.

This XIII International AIDS Conference was one of those occurrences in life that will stay with us forever.

To help you remember the people and events, we created this CD that we hope you have enjoyed.

Thank you for being part of our lives!

To everyone that helped make this event such a huge success - THANK YOU!!
